

WELLINGTON JERSEY

In the death of Wellington Jersey, which occurred at his home, corner Pleasant and Sisson Streets, at midnight on Monday, a pioneer of Washington Township has been removed from our midst. Mr. Jersey had been confined to his home for three months past with cancer of the stomach, from which he had been more or less troubled for many years past. Mr. Jersey was born in Washington Township, three miles south of the village, and early became a resident of Romeo. He had been engaged in business up to the time of his illness. He had been careful in his dealings and had gained for himself a completeness. Mr. Jersey leaves a widow, one sister, Miss Jane Jersey, and two brothers, William and Phillip Jersey.
